Plantain Sugar

VIDEOGRAPHY APPROACH

AZ's First Nigerian Independence Festival
Sept 26, 2026 | 3 PM – 9:30 PM
Peoria's Centennial Plaza Park
~400 attendees

Generations Productions

Capture the moment. Preserve the culture.

The Opportunity

A FIRST-OF-ITS-KIND MILESTONE

~400 people. One historic day. A story worth telling right.

A professional 60-second recap for the organizers — capturing the energy, culture, and community of the first Nigerian Independence Festival in Arizona.

Capture the moment. Preserve the culture.

The Approach

PEOPLE FIRST. EMOTION FIRST. ENJOYMENT FIRST.

We capture how the event feels — not just how it looks.

- Landscape orientation throughout
- Reactions over staged shots
- Friends, families, and candid joy
- Short interviews with attendees as it happens

Capture the moment. Preserve the culture.

Coverage by Phase

MAPPED TO THE SCHEDULE

3:00 – 4:00	Arrivals, marketplace, first impressions, atmosphere
4:00 – 4:30	Mini parade & opening ceremony energy
4:40 – 7:00	Main stage, soccer, cooking demo, crowd reactions
6:45 – 7:20	Music & traditional dance, close-ups, crowd joy
7:35 – 9:30	Outdoor movie & closing ambience

Capture the moment. Preserve the culture.

What We Are Capturing

THE HEART OF THE EXPERIENCE

MOMENTS

- Performances & speakers
- Food, fashion, flags, tradition
- Day-to-night transition

PEOPLE

- Reactions & laughter
- Friends & families enjoying together
- Attendee interviews

Respectful coverage. No blocked sightlines. No disruptive lighting.

Capture the moment. Preserve the culture.

Gear & Crew

TWO SHOOTERS, CLEAN AUDIO

TEAM

- 2-person crew
- Primary shooter
- Second angle / roaming operator

GEAR

- 2 DJI Osmo Pocket 3 cameras
- All footage in landscape orientation
- Built-in gimbal stabilization
- DJ booth line-out for crisp audio

Capture the moment. Preserve the culture.

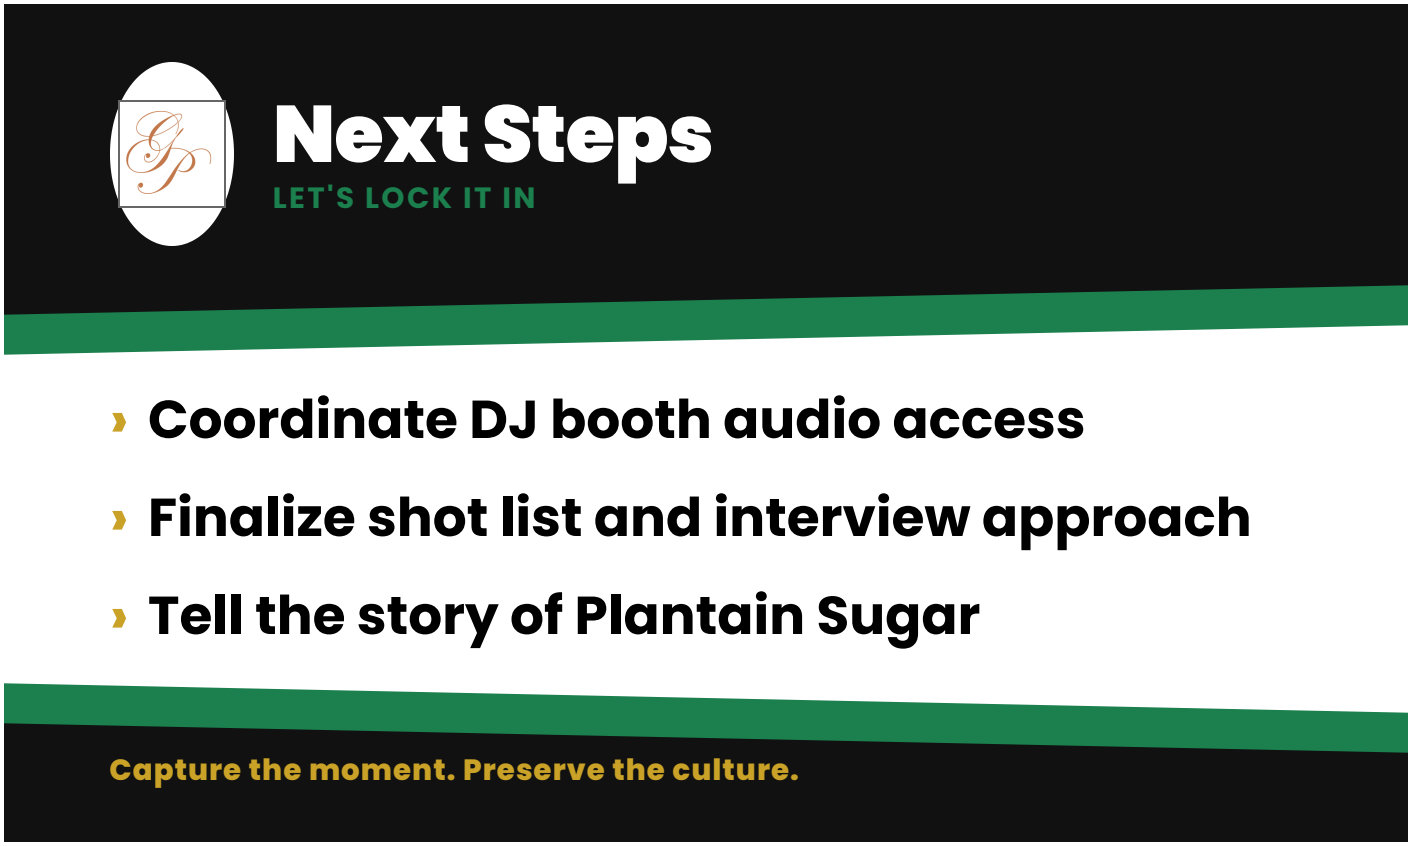

Deliverables

LANDSCAPE. TIGHT. SHAREABLE.

One polished 60-second recap video in landscape.

- People-first story of the event
- High-energy, emotion-driven edit
- Crisp performance audio from the DJ mix

Capture the moment. Preserve the culture.

Speaker notes