RSS Portrait Bar Partnership

SKATELAND CHANDLER

A daytime add-on for birthday parties and events
November 2, 2026

Go do something you love.

The Opportunity

CAPITALIZE ON DAYTIME BUSINESS

> Skateland's daytime business is strong. Every birthday party, field trip, and group event has people who want proof they were there. Right now, that proof walks out the door.

RSS can close that gap with a Portrait Bar add-on: professional, shareable photos for event hosts, powered by local skaters.

Go do something you love.

What Is the Portrait Bar?

PREMIUM, AFFORDABLE PHOTO ACTIVATION

Built on the same gear and workflow as GenIdem, a Phoenix-area portrait-booth service. Closer to a mini studio setup than an iPad selfie booth.

1. Guests step into the portrait area.
2. They press a handheld trigger to take their own photo.
3. Professional camera and strobe deliver flattering, high-quality images.
4. Within 24-72 hours, the host receives a private online gallery link.
5. Guests scan a QR code to download their photos once the gallery is live.

Go do something you love.

The Offer

SIMPLE PRICING, CLEAR VALUE

$150

PARTY PORTRAIT BAR ADD-ON

Unlimited photos during the full party | Online gallery | 24-72 hour delivery

INCLUDED

- Equipment setup and breakdown
- On-site operator
- Camera, lighting, handheld trigger
- Private online gallery
- QR code card for guests
- Co-branded step-and-repeat backdrop

SPACE & POWER

- 10' × 10' minimum space
- Ideally near a power outlet
- Portable power station available if needed
- Setup shortly before the party

Co-branded step-and-repeat backdrop turns every guest photo into marketing for all three partners.

Go do something you love.

Business Flow

PORTRAIT BAR ↔ RSS ↔ SKATELAND

Portrait Bar

Provides equipment, operator training, and capture workflow. Contracted by RSS.

Roller Skate Stories

Partners with Skateland, coordinates operators, delivers galleries, and fuels skate-community marketing.

Skateland

Pitches the add-on to party hosts, collects payment, provides space and access.

Party Host

Pays $150 for unlimited Portrait Bar access during their party. Gets a private photo gallery.

Go do something you love.

Partnership Model

10% TO SKATELAND PER BOOKING

PER BOOKING

- Party host fee: $150
- Skateland keeps: $15 (10%)
- Net to RSS: $135
- RSS splits $135 with Portrait Bar team

WHY THIS WORKS

- No upfront cost for Skateland
- No operational burden
- Direct incentive to pitch it
- RSS handles equipment, operator, delivery

Skateland pitches the add-on, collects the $150, and keeps $15. RSS invoices Skateland for the net $135 and settles with the Portrait Bar team.

Go do something you love.

What Skateland Gets

REVENUE, DIFFERENTIATION, HAPPY HOSTS

- New revenue per event — no new staff or inventory needed.
- Differentiation from other rinks and party venues.
- Happier event hosts who leave with professional photos and a reason to rebook.
- Marketing content — with permission, Skateland can use event photos to promote future bookings.
- Low risk — RSS brings the gear, operator, and delivery workflow.

Go do something you love.

What RSS Gets

FUEL FOR THE MISSION

Revenue

A real income stream to fund nighttime adult-skate marketing.

Jobs

Concrete tasks for skaters: setup, operation, editing, posting.

Mission Alignment

Serves the daytime business while preserving skate culture.

Growth

Proof of concept for expanding to other rinks and events.

Go do something you love.

Day-Of Operations

WHAT HAPPENS AT THE EVENT

1. RSS operator arrives before the party to set up the Portrait Bar.
2. Guests use the handheld trigger to take photos during the party.
3. Operator stays nearby to assist, troubleshoot, and manage the line.
4. After the party, gear is packed and cleared quickly.
5. Photos are culled and edited; gallery link is sent to the host within 24-72 hours.
6. RSS can create short recap clips for social media with permission.

Go do something you love.

Pilot Plan

PROVE IT BEFORE SCALING

1. Pick one upcoming birthday party or daytime event at Skateland Chandler.
2. Skateland pitches the Portrait Bar to the host as a $150 add-on.
3. RSS provides equipment, operator, gallery delivery, and a one-page service flyer.
4. Skateland provides space, power access, and day-of coordination.
5. After the event, both sides review host feedback, revenue, and operational friction.
6. Photos from the party are delivered to the host.
7. Decide: formalize the partnership, adjust pricing, or refine the offering.

Go do something you love.

Open Questions

OPERATIONAL DETAILS TO RESOLVE

- ? How are birthday parties currently marketed, booked, and pitched?
- ? Can it be added to the online booking flow?
- ? Who collects payment from the host?
- ? How far in advance are parties confirmed?
- ? Who is the Skateland day-of contact?
- ? Where exactly will the 10'×10' space be?
- ? What if the party runs late?
- ? What is Skateland's cancellation policy?
- ? What co-branded marketing assets does Skateland want?
- ? How does Skateland track pitch-to-book conversion?
- ? When and by whom is the Portrait Bar offered to party hosts?
- ? What is the latest a host can add the add-on?
- ? What payment/remittance cadence works best?
- ? How is RSS notified of a booked Portrait Bar event?
- ? What is the earliest RSS can arrive to set up?
- ? How does RSS load in gear and park?
- ? How should minor guest photo releases be handled?
- ? Can RSS film B-roll and use photos for marketing?
- ? Which event type should be the pilot?
- ? Photo usage rights contract language for hosts.

Go do something you love.

Next Steps

LET'S MOVE FORWARD

1. Review and approve this proposal.
2. Walk through the open operational questions together.
3. Agree on photo usage rights language for party hosts.
4. Schedule the pilot birthday party.
5. Confirm payment and remittance workflow.
6. RSS finalizes the pack list and operator checklist.

The goal is a simple, low-risk partnership that makes daytime events more valuable for Skateland and gives RSS the resources to grow the night.

Go do something you love.